Anasi Farmers Association.

THEORY OF CHANGE

LONGTERM OUTCOME

Improved Food Security and Biodiversity

IMMEDIATE OUTCOME

Increased food production
Improved land regeneration
Trainees have sources of food varieties that enable them feed on a balanced diet.
Income increase among farmers households

OUTPUT

Our trainees have increased knowledge and skills in organic vegatable gardening, fruit growing and the application of agroecology principles.

Our trainees have access to quality seedlings and farm tools

Our trainees manage their finances well.

Our Actions.

We Train women, men and young people on effective organic vegetable Gardening, fruit growing and agroecology principles.

Operation of a permaculture demonstration site We provide vegetable seeds, fruits seedlings and farming tools to our trainees.

We integrate Financial management in our farming trainings.

Training on proper waste management.

AGROECOLOGY

Impact

Improved living conditions of rural women and children in Kasese, Uganda.

IMMEDIATE OUTCOME

Reduced malnutrition cases among women and chidlren

OUTPUT

Malnourished and at risk people identified and accessing nutrition services.

Increased dietary diversity

Our Actions

We Train women and men on best feeding practices and preparation of a nutritious meal. We identify and offer refferal of the malnurished children and mothers to health facilities further management.

INPUTS

Human Resources Finance Resources Time Resources

